

Available Book Clubs

National Aphasia Association: Books, Us & More

When: Every Thursday at 1:30pm ET to 2:30 ET.

Where: Online via zoom

Other Information: The NAA offers their book club for free. The club reads 1-3 chapters a week.

Link for more information: <https://www.aphasia.org/naa-book-club/>

Neuro Rehab Network's Aphasia Book Club

When: Every Monday at 1pm ET

Where: Clarksville, MD or Zoom session available

Other Information: The program costs $200 for a 9-week session. It works best for those who can read at the phrase level or above

Link for more information: <https://neurorehabnetwork.org/aphasia-book-club>

Voices of Hope's Aphasia Book Club

When: Mondays and Tuesdays 10:30am-12pm ET

Where: Online Via Zoom, based in Florida

Other Information: Participants can read or listen to the book.

Link for more information: <http://www.vohaphasia.org/aphasia-book-club/>

The Aphasia Center's Book Connection Aphasia Book Club

Where: Oakland, California

Other Information: The club provides group members with chapter highlights that make the book accessible to those with acquired reading impairments. They review the previous chapters each week.

Link for more information: <http://www.aphasiacenter.net/programs/aphasia-book-club/>

Triangle Aphasia Project's Book Club

Where: Cary, North Carolina; Online options are available, but you must live in North Carolina

Other Information: The cost to participate is $5 for each one-hour group session. They offer two choices, "TAP into Reading" and "Mind readers," which allows for a range of abilities to participate.

Link for more information: <https://www.aphasiaproject.org/tap-at-home/tap-at-home-i-have-aphasia/?v=7516fd43adaa>

Boston University's Book Club

When: Weekly meetings

Where: Boston University, groups are currently being offered ONLINE.

Other Information: Books are about 300 pages in length. Members can read the text from print or via CD.

Link for more information: <https://www.bu.edu/aphasiacenter/current-programs/weekly-groups/>

Southeastern Book Club

When: Weekly, Tuesdays at 1pm ET

Where: Online via Zoom

Other Information: The Book club is free. Each week they discuss 1-2 chapters of the book. All books are provided to participants free of charge.

Contact for more information: martha.sherrill@selu.edu

Stroke & Aphasia Recovery (STAR) Program; Texas Tech University

When: Weekly, Thursdays at 1pm ET

Where: Online Via Zoom

Other Information: The book club is free. This program also offers a variety of other clubs.

Link for more information: <https://www.ttuhsr.edu/health-professions/star-program/>

